1Sam. 1:1

There was a man of Harmathaim Sipha from the hill country of Ephraim, and his name was Elkana son of Jeremeel son of Eliou son of Thoke, in Nasib Ephraim.

1Sam. 1:2

And he had two wives; the name of the one was Hanna, and the name of the second Peninnah. And Peninnah had children, and Hanna had no child.

1Sam. 1:3

And the man used to go up from days to days from his town, from Harmathaim, to worship and to sacrifice to the Lord God Sabaoth at Shiloh, and there Eli and his two sons, Hophni and Phinees, were priests of the Lord.

1Sam. 1:4

And it happened on a day and Elkana sacrificed and gave portions to his wife Peninnah and to her sons, and to Hanna he gave one portion, because she did not have a child. However, Elkana loved Hanna more than this one, and the Lord had closed the area of her womb.

1Sam. 1:5

1Sam. 1:6

Since the Lord did not give her a child according to her affliction and according to the despondency of her affliction, she was also becoming despondent because of this, that the Lord had closed the area of her womb so as not to give her a child.

1Sam. 1:7

Thus she used to do year by year, when she would go up to the house of the Lord, and she would be despondent and would weep and not eat.

1Sam. 1:8

And her husband Elkana said to her, "Hanna," and she said to him, "Here I am, lord." And he said to her, "How is it that you are weeping? And why do you not eat? And why does your heart smite you? Am I not good to you beyond ten children?"

1Sam. 1:9

And after they had eaten at Shiloh, Hanna rose and stood before the Lord, and Eli the priest was sitting on the seat beside the doorposts of the shrine of the Lord.

1Sam. 1:10

And she was deeply distressed in soul and prayed to the Lord, and weeping she wept

1Sam. 1:11

and vowed a vow to the Lord, saying: "Adonai Lord, Eloai Sabaoth, if looking you will look on the humiliation of your slave and remember me and give to your slave an offspring of men, and I will give him as one devoted before you until the day of his death, and wine and strong drink he shall not drink, and no iron shall come upon his head."

1Sam. 1:12

And it happened, as she continued praying before the Lord, that Eli the priest observed her mouth, and she was speaking in her heart, and her lips kept moving, and her voice was not heard, and Eli reckoned her as drunk.

1Sam. 1:13

1Sam. 1:14

And the servant-boy of Eli said to her, "How long will you be drunk? Put away your wine, and go out from the presence of the Lord."

1Sam. 1:15

And Hanna answered and said, "No, lord; I am a woman for whom this is a hard day; I have not drunk wine and strong drink, and I am pouring out my soul before the Lord; 1Sam. 1:16 do not regard your slave as a pestilent daughter, because I have been greatly extending my mummings until now."

1Sam. 1:17

And Eli answered and said to her, "Go in peace; may the God of Israel grant you your every request which you have requested of him."

1Sam. 1:18

And she said, "Your slave has found favor in your sight." And the woman went on her way and entered her quarters and ate and drank with her husband, and her countenance was sad no longer.

1Sam. 1:19

And they rose early in the morning and worshipped the Lord and went their way. And Elkana entered into his house at Harmathaim, and he knew his wife Hanna, and the Lord remembered her, and she conceived. And it happened at the season of days that she bore a son, and she called his name Samuel, and she said, "Because I have requested him of the Lord God Sabaoth."

1Sam. 1:20

1Sam. 1:21

And the man Elkana and all his household went up to offer in Shiloh the sacrifice of the days and his vows and all the tithes of his land, and Hanna did not go up with him, for she said to her husband, "Until the boy goes up if I shall wean it, and it will appear to the face of the Lord and stay there forever."

1Sam. 1:22

1Sam. 1:23

And her husband Elkana said to her, "Do what is good in your sight; stay until you have weaned him; only may the Lord establish that which goes out of your mouth." And the woman remained and nursed her son until she weaned him.
