A. The Word with God and Describing God

John 1:1

In the beginning was the Word,
and the Word was with God,
and the Word was God.

John 1:2

He was in the beginning with God.

John 1:3

All things were made through him,
and apart from him not even one thing was made
that was made.

John 1:4

In him was life,
and the life was the light of men.

John 1:5

And the light shines in the darkness,
and the darkness has not grasped it.

John 1:6

There was a man sent from God,
whose name was John.

John 1:7

He came as a witness,
to bear witness about the light,
that all might believe through him.

John 1:8

He was not the light,
but came to bear witness about the light.

John 1:9

The true light,
which enlightens everyone,
was coming into the world.

John 1:10

He was in the world,
and the world was made through him,
and the world did not know him.

John 1:11

He came to his own,
and his own people did not receive him.

John 1:12

But to all who did receive him,
he gave the authority to become children of God,
who believed in his name,

John 1:13

Who were born,
neither of blood
nor of the will
neither of the flesh
nor of the will of man,
but of God.

John 1:14

And the Word became flesh
and dwelt among us,

and we have seen his glory,
glory as of the only Son from the Father,
full of grace and truth.

John 1:15

John bore witness about him,
and cried out, "This was he of whom I said,
'He who comes after me
ranks in front of me,
because he was before me.'"

John 1:16

Because from his fullness we have all received,
and grace upon grace.

John 1:17

because the law was given through Moses;
grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.

John 1:18

No one has ever seen God;
the only God,
who is at the Father's side,
he has described him.
